WASHINGTON HOUSE,
EAST MAIN STREET
Jasper, Ind.,
N. E. BORING, Prop'r.

Having leased this house from Mr. Ser-merheim and having refitted and furnished it, it is now open for the accommodation of travelers and boarders. Being directly in front of the Court House, and close to the business portion of the town, it is a convenient stopping place, and the proprietor will spare no exertion to make his guests comfortable.
Good stabling and feed provided for horses, with a careful Ostler.

Merchants' and Mechanics' HOTEL.
WEST S., BETWEEN MAIN AND McDONALD, JASPER, INDIANA.

THE undersigned, having purchased and fitted up this property for hotel purposes, solicits a liberal share of public patronage.
His table will always be supplied with the best the market affords, and no effort will be spared to make those who may stop with him "feel at home."

Good stabling furnished for horses.

BYE AND EAR.
HAVING made the EYE and EAR, with their many and complicated diseases, a speciality and the study of years, I desire to say to this community, that I am prepared to treat all who may seek relief from pain or suffering resulting from any affection of these important organs.

All know the invaluable advantage of good eyesight and good hearing, and should, consequently, be careful to preserve them.
What at first may appear to be the uninitiated but a slight disorder, is often the germ of a deep seated disease, which may, for want of proper attention, develop itself into a destructive agent. The slightest inflammation may extend to such a degree; and hence, I say, we cannot be too careful in guarding that which may be so easily lost ons.

Long experience in the hospitals of Europe in military and civil practice, has made me familiar with the minute structure of these organs, the diseases to which they are liable, and the proper treatment, to afford prompt and permanent relief.

The Tenants of the Heart have Moved Away.

BY HOPE ARLINGTON.

Moved away! Oh, no! they've only Cast aside the clothes they wore, And, in purer robes, and saintlier, They are with us as before.

Only that our spirit's vision, Dimmed by scenes of earth so long,
Can not grasp at once the glory That enfolds the heavenly throng.

But by holy, sweet emotions,
That our heart-strings wildly thrill, Know we that our souls dear kindred Are not lost—but near us still—

Near, to whisper hope in sorrow; Near, to comfort in despair;
Near, to strengthen in temptation;
Near our sweetest joys to share.

O! the heaven we fondly cherish Can not be so far above That no spirit-message ever Comes to us from those we love.

Not in words of human weakness,
Not in sounds for human ears,
But in strains the spirit singeth,
And the spirit, only, hears.

How Old is He?

It became necessary recently in the Criminal Court at Newport, Ky., in order to render a boy witness competent, to prove that he had reached the age of ten years, and his mother, an Irish woman, was called for that purpose.

"How old is your son John?" quoth the lawyer.

"Indge, sir, I dunno, but I think he's not tin yit," was the reply.

"Did you make no record of his birth?"

"The prate did, in the old country, where he was born."

"How long after your marriage was that?"

"About a year; may be less."

"When were you married?"

"Dade, sir, I dunno."

"Did you not bring a certificate of your marriage with you from the old country?"

"Hoy, sir! and what should I made wid a certificate whin I had the ould mon himself along wid me?"

No further questions were asked.

—The General Postoffice is now engaged in reviving the affairs of a large number of postoffices throughout the country and making a final settlement of their accounts.—

It is discovered in many of the offices that business has greatly increased, which, being shown to the satisfaction of the department the salaries of the postmasters at such offices will be increased. In other offices where the business has decreased a corresponding reduction will be made in the salaries of the postmasters.

—The Salem, Ohio Observer, a radical paper, warns its radical friends that "the party which plants itself upon the doctrine that the Government bonds shall be exempt from State and municipal taxation, will be disowned by the people." A few more Democratic sentiments like that, uttered by that paper, and the Observer will be "disowned" by the radical party.

—The friends of Chase declare that they will support the nominee of the Chicago Convention, whoever he may be, but, at the same time, they assert the Chief Justice will get the nomination. They are making capital against Chase for lending his aid in the execution of the President's order decapitating Pope, Sheridan, etc., and thus illustrating the wishes of the radical Congress.

—A lady in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, having given birth to five children at a single birth—three boys and two girls—all of whom are doing well, and it having been ascertained that the family are all Democratic, and intend removing to Sullivan, county, a forty acre tract of land was immediately donated for their benefit by some of the citizens.

—George Wolfen, of Mount Vernon, pays a Government tax of $700 per day on whisky distilled at his own distillery.

—Why is a water-lily like a whale?

Because they both come to the surface to bloat.

—Why is a goose like a cow's tail?

Because they both grow down.

—Which has the most legs a horse or a horse? Ans.—No horse has five.

—The New York Tribune, bitterly partisan as it is, is sometimes seized with with a fit of honest indignation at the acts of its party leaders in Congress, and properly calls attention to their misdoings. Thus, the other day, after saying that there was hardly a week passed but that public money was appropriated by Congress for purposes for which there was no warrant in the Constitution, it quoted the following instances.
It said:

"For two years, Mr. Foster of Connecticut, drew a salary of $8,000, and $2,000 for a private secretary, when he was by the letter of the law, entitled to no more than the salary of a Senator of the United States. Mr. Wade does the same now.— He draws the salary of Vice-president, and is known as 'Acting Vice-president,' an office not recognized by the Constitution, or any law of the United States. It is entirely a brevet rank; the extra pay has been attached to it since 1865 by courtesy, and not by right; and so on to the end of the chapter.

"The Republican Congressional Committee have had in their employ, as Southern missionaries, for a year past, a large number of men paid as clerks and officers of the House of Representatives. Is there warrant of law for this? If so, it would enlighten a great many anxious inquirers to point out just where it is."

—A RUINED PEOPLE.—The editor of the Georgia Citizen, who has recently made a trip to Southwestern Georgia, says: "From all that we can gather, in a late trip southward, the most deplorable state of destitution and prospective bankruptcy stares the people in the face. Planters generally are unable to pay expenses, and the merchants will not be able to meet their liabilities.— The smallest amounts can not be collected from parties who have been accustomed to the luxuries of life, and we predict more suffering and distress the ensuing winter and spring among the poorer class than ever before witnessed in this section. As to the colored race, the prospect is still more gloomy; thousands will be thrown out of employment; while other thousands will not work if they can get work to do. They prefer to live some other way. What will be the end thereof, the Lord only knoweth."

—The New York Times (Republican) is not very complimentary to the Impresment Committee of the President when it says:

"No testimony which promised support came amiss. No character was too vile or too notorious to be used in their hands against the President. Shameless bands, acknowledged plimps and spies, confessed and convicted perjurers, were summoned to the witness box and invited to share in the great political hunt. Leading questions were asked, the vaguest hearsay was admitted as evidence, and every rule and requirement which the lowest criminal court in the land would scrupulously enforce for the protection of the meekest wretch accused of crime were thrown aside and utterly disregarded in this investigation."

The Great West.

For years past the Great West has been made the tool of Eastern capitalists and manufacturers. The West has, for years, suffered themselves to be taxed enormously for the benefit of New England Manufacturers—and now the war is over, the Great West has to pay the greater portion of the interest on the national debt.
The Eastern capitalists not only made us do the fighting, but they now make us do the paying. How long will the West submit to this kind of injustice?—Paul Eagle.

—The radical convention at Nashville was composed of about two thousand blacks and two dozen whites. The whisky was plentiful and the row and noise were tremendous. One soldier was stabbed dead, and the calaboose was filled with blacks.

—Why are women like churches? First, because there is no lying without offe; secondly, because there is many a spire to them; thirdly because they are objects of adoration; and lastly, but by no means leastly because they have a loud clapper in their upper-story.

—Which has the most legs a horse or a horse? Ans.—No horse has five.
